It ain't a bit of use to fret,

Take it as you find it.

'Tis the best world you've been in yet.

So laugh and never mind it

If at Luton you can find.
A Lady who was so good & kind.
As the one I met, you will never regret
The day you spent at Luton

Bye Bye

Whilst sitting one day in my dugout weary and ill at ease
I saw a Gunner carefully scanning his sunburnt knees
I asked him why he was searching and what he was looking for
But his only reply was a long drawn sigh
As he gently killed one more

I joined the army 12 months ago
My King and Country needed me
But I've had enough "yes quite enough"
And they don't get me no more now they have freed me.

Have hope, though clouds environ now,
and gladness hides her face in scorn,
Put thou the shadow from thy brow—
no night but has its morn.

Have faith wherever thy bark is driven
The calms disport the tempests mirth Know this—God rules the host of heaven and the inhabitants of earth.

Have love, not love alone for one But man, as man thy brother call and scatter like the circling sun Thy charities on all.

Thus stamp these lessons on thy soul
Faith, Hope, and Love, and thou shalt find Strength when life's surges rudest roll Sight when thou else was blind

Recipe for Kiss cake

Take 1 armful of pretty girl, 1 lovely face 2 laughing brown eyes, 2 rosy cheeks & 2 lips like strawberries. Mix well together & press 2 lips. The result will be astonishing.

For frosting, take 1 piece of dark pizza & a little moonlight & press into 1 large or small hand, so as not to attract attention, 2 ounces of romance & 1 or 2 whiskers. Dissolve 1 half-a-dozen glances into a quantity of hesitation & 2 ounces of yielding. Place kisses on blushing lips or cheeks. Flavour with a slight scream and set aside to cool.

A home like that in Burnley,
I thought I could never find,
But while I was at Luton,
I had to change my mind.

Faithful.

Faithful to you, this short time we have together,
Like to the butterfly that flits from flower to flower.

Your loving face will keep my memory constant,
Your sweetest present has grown dear hour by hour.

God Be with you till we meet again.
Our Father knows the paths that we must tread.

So far apart and yet tis His appointed way.
But till we meet again I am praying for you

God be with you always now and every Day.

Amen.

Girls put your trust in no
man,

No not even a brother;
Girls if you must love;
Love one another.

When first he went to see her
I was with a timid heart
And even when the lights went low
They - sat - this - much - apart

But as the love grew warmer
And they learnt the joy of a kiss
They knocked out all the spaces
And sat as close as this.

Oh! Mr Snail how I wish you could talk
For I really can't see how you manage to walk
With your house on your back, no legs, or a tail
You're a very queer fellow indeed MR Snail!
